Leitz 6 x 30 Binoculars, Cat. No. 18,025

PRISM BINOCULARS

Leitz Prism Binoculars are light weight and constructed with the same high precision as the Leica camera and Leitz microscopes. All glass-to-air surfaces of the optical system are coated, producing an exceptionally brilliant image. The lenses and prisms are rigidly mounted, maintaining their fine adjustment through a lifetime of use, and are sealed against dust and moisture. The right eyepiece, on central focusing models, is adjustable for variance between an individuals eyes and is fitted with a diopter scale for ease in resetting; likewise, the interpupillary distance is readily reset by reference to the millimeter scale.

All Leitz binoculars, except the 3 and 4 power, 6 x 25, and the theatre glasses, are available in both central and individual focusing models. Central focusing offers the greatest convenience and is the most rapid for following motion or when changing from close to distant observation. Individual eyepiece focusing is recommended where the glass is to be used under extreme conditions or where it is essential that it be water-tight.

Leitz binoculars are available in a wide variety of magnifications and objective diameters to meet all requirements. Each binocular, except the theatre glass, is furnished with a neck strap and beautifully finished brown leather case with adjustable shoulder strap.

Monoculars

Monoculars are used when price, weight or available space are considerations, or wherever a stereoscopic effect is not necessary. When mounted on a support they provide an excellent means of viewing a fixed area. Persons with sight in only one eye need not buy the more expensive binoculars to experience the thrill of using a fine glass.

A monocular is essentially half of a binocular. The single eyepiece is focused in the same manner as an individually focused binocular and is fitted with a diopter scale. The light transmission, angle of view and field covered are the same as for binoculars with the same magnification and objective diameter.

Leitz monoculars are available in a wide variety of magnifications and objective diameters to meet all requirements. Each monocular is furnished with a neck strap and beautifully finished brown leather case with adjustable shoulder strap.
